"Some people have gotten out of the habit of meeting for worship, but we must not do that. We should keep on encouraging each other, especially since you know that the day of the Lord's coming is getting closer." Contemporary English Version (CEV) Copyright © 1995 by American Bible Society

As I write this we are in the midst of a historic pandemic, the spread of COVID-19, Coronavirus. We have been encouraged to cancel worship and other church activities, which we have. We are being asked to practice "social distancing", which ironically, in my opinion, we have been doing for some time already. While social media has become a greater influence in our lives, our actual social interaction has been on the decline.

As I ponder this situation it is my humble opinion that our lack of physical contact with others, as well as with nature, is weakening us and making us all the more vulnerable to things like COVID-19 when they arise. In recent history we have experienced the lessening popularity of things like recreational leagues, social and civic clubs, service organizations and dwindling attendance at many worship services and church functions. As a result, we are no longer exposed to as large a variety of small doses of "invaders" or threats to our immune systems, doses that just might help us build up a tolerance for the bigger invaders when they arise.

We are created by God to live in relationship, first to God, then to one another. Adam was not complete without Eve and we are not complete without others to share our good times, bad times, and, most of all our faith. I understand the need for caution during pandemics and other threats to public health, but when there is no threat, let's take the advice of the author of the letter to the Hebrews, to meet together in church and elsewhere more often. I believe that by doing so we will make each stronger physically, mentally, and especially, spiritually.

On a brighter note, I want to take this opportunity to publicly welcome St. Mark's new Administrative Assistant, Loraine (with one "r") Mariner. Loraine volunteered a few months back to "fill in" upon the resignation of our former Administrative Assistant, Kim DiPaolo. While she was filling in, in the spirit of fairness to all involved, we conducted a search for other candidates to take on the job full-time, but without success. After interviewing Loraine, we decided she was our best choice for the position, and she is doing a great job so far.

MISSION STATEMENT: Nourished by Word and Sacrament, the mission of the members of St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran Church is to spread God's Word in Jesus Christ through our thoughts, words, and actions, proclaiming God's good news for all to hear and live.

Some may think of Loraine as a “church secretary”, but I must say she is much more than that. Her duties include that of receptionist, (answering and screening phone calls), security guard, (operating the electronic security system on our doors), publisher, editor, and proofreader, (producing the weekly bulletin and now the Parish Post) and motivator (prodding me to make phone calls and get things done on time)!

Loraine is just one example of the tremendous “in-house” talent we have here at St. Mark’s. So many others share their time and talents working with the various ministries of the church, organizing and overseeing church events, keeping our building and grounds in good working order, and many other tasks that help us to fulfill God’s call to ministry for our congregation. Thanks to all who make this ministry possible, and welcome to anyone who would like to become more involved.

“We should keep on encouraging each other, especially since you know that the day of the Lord’s coming is getting closer.”

COUNCIL PRESIDENT

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Time flies so they say and that is true here at St. Mark’s. It’s been a busy winter with our worship services and scheduled activities. In addition, the new church council has been hard at work and I would like to thank everyone for their dedication and commitment.

I would like to thank everyone at St. Mark’s for their stewardship as we ended 2019 without a deficit!! If we give as we are blessed, as a congregation we can accomplish much!

We have completed the search for and hired a new Administrative Assistant - Loraine Mariner. We are fortunate to have Loraine step into that role since she had substituted in that role in the past.

We are starting to see some cost savings in utilities from both the good stewardship efforts of looking for the most cost-effective suppliers as well as seeing the results and benefits of replacing our windows.

As we journey through Lent, we will be called to make that journey in a way that is very different to us. While we are currently missing our sense of community through participating in church activities, I am sure we can turn our contemplation and social distancing into a positive representation of St. Mark’s. I invite all of you as you are able to practice a random act of kindness; to reach out to someone who should not go out because of physical limitations or because they are in a high-risk category for COVID-19; call someone to let them know you are thinking about them; send a card; and above all - pray. We will look forward to resuming our community of fellowship at a future date.

I look forward to seeing you in church!

Stephanie

St. Mark's was recently the recipient of a very generous bequest from the estate of long time member, Alice Houck. Alice was one of the original members from St. Marks having come from Shoop's Church. She was also a very big supporter of Evangelism and Stewardship. She was the originator of the act of giving bread to any visitor that came to St. Marks. She left her mark on many other things in the church. She was a Stephen Minister and this was very important to her. She was noted for her sweet and compassionate way that she made everyone feel welcomed.

Alice's bequest will certainly be very helpful in enhancing the ministry of St. Mark's to our members and community.

Sandy Sherwood, Stewardship chair

ST. MARK'S AGAPE' FUND, from which we provide help for members and others in immediate need, is running low on funds. This is a designated fund supported by members' contributions. If you would like to contribute to the Agape' fund, please mark your check or envelope "AGAPE FUND and place it in the offering plate, drop it off or mail it to the office, or give it to Pastor Jim. Thank you.

SOCIAL SERVICES NEWS

SOCIAL SERVICES REQUEST: The Ecumenical Food Pantry is in need of personal care items. We are asking the congregation to donate the following items: Toilet paper, toothbrushes, toothpaste, deodorant, feminine napkins, tampons, soap, shampoo, conditioner, and diapers. You may leave your donations in the cart in the Narthex. This collection will continue throughout the year. Any help would be greatly appreciated. Thanks in advance for your support.

LECTOR COORDINATOR NEEDED

What does the job entail?

Get people to commit to reading – either by calling or securing them in person. I will provide a list of all those wonderful people that have volunteered over the past 10 years.

Readers need secured for the 8:15 am and 11 am service. In addition, all special services –

Pastor Jim will let you know what is needed.

Mail or email the readings to the secured volunteer readers.

Give list of readers to church secretary by the bulletin deadline.

If you think this is something you might be interested in – please let Lauren Zaccurelli (Hengst) or Pastor Jim know. I promise, we will walk you through it and help you get started.

Thank you for your consideration!

Dear St. Mark's Family,

Betty and I often reminded each other of how blessed we were to have two wonderful families – our Shook-Hengst family and our St. Mark's family. With the loss of my beloved, you have once again demonstrated just how true that is. Your prayers, cards and letters have meant a great deal to me. Thank you, thank you.

May God continue to bless you as richly as you have blessed me.

Bill Shook

Dear St. Mark's family,

My sincere thanks for all the kindness, caring and compassion extended to us by so many of you during Jim's illness. A special thank you to Pastor Jim for his unwavering support. As you know, Jim's journey was a long one but was on his timetable. Throughout the years, as we faced crisis after crisis, we were always aware of God's presence. I like to think that our spiritual strength enabled us to make that journey. Now for the grieving and rebuilding a life for myself....my St. Mark's family is an important part of that. My sincere gratitude to everyone for their many expressions of caring. The kindness has been overwhelming and was incredibly apparent to our family who came to the service at St. Mark's. I am truly thankful and appreciative of your Christian love and caring. I am so thankful to be part of the St. Mark's family.

In Christian love,

Stephanie Carl

Dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ,

We are so grateful to have received your very generous gift of $761.00, forwarded to us by the Lower Susquehanna Synod. Through this gift, you have extended the very real hands of help and caring to our neighbors here in Allison Hill who need the access to health care and the items necessary to stay healthy and dignified that you help us provide. Thank you for being our partner in mission.

Grace and Peace

Beloved siblings of St Mark's

As the freezing cold wind of the mid-west forces me inside - I recognize how badly I needed some warmth.

I found this warmth in the box of goodies you sent me.

What a wonderful reminder of home.

I miss you all & look forward to being back with you all soon. Thank you again!

Your Brother in Christ,

Troy Spencer

Dear St Mark's Lutheran Council:

We are so grateful for your recent donation of $1000 to our mission ministry. We offer Spirit-Driven, organized and well executed mission opportunities for participants of all ages in and around the Lower Susquehanna Synod. We make every effort to provide these opportunities at the lowest cost possible, and a donation such as your generous one, makes that possible.

Thank you and God Bless,
Jesse Woodrow

Dear Siblings in Christ at St. Mark's Lutheran Church

Thank you for your recent gift of $1,000.00 given on December 31, 2019, designated for Unrestricted use (no goods or services were provided in exchange for your contribution). Your gift, along with many others by your fellow camp supporters, enables thousands of campers of all ages to experience this good news each year. Thank you so much for your generosity. Thank you for your partnership in ministry & for your gift Via Synod Benevolence.

Yours in Christ

Dear Saint Mark's Family

Thank You very much for all the cards, hugs and prayers on the passing of my wife Donna. A special thanks to Pastor Jim for his home visits, prayers and administering Donna's celebration of life service. A job well done. I would also like to thank Joyce Van Nieuwkuyk for her wonderful rendition of some of Donna's favorite hymns before and throughout the service. I would also like to thank Don Young for his cooperation and hard work helping us with setup and clean-up. You will never know how much this meant to me and my family.

Yours in Christ
Hank Lahr & family

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the Ecumenical Food Pantry, and those who benefit by your generosity, I would like to thank you or your generous contribution we received since October thru December 2019.

Sincerely,
Jacqueline M. Young

Bitter Sweet

I have been thinking about how I can better my purpose here in Romania. I am always seeking ideas for improving lessons, and make them more interesting for the children without constant expense. Then I was the recipient of sad news. A potential client at the Hagar House was interviewed by staff for possible entry and met with the other moms and babies. The following day she was murdered. It shook the house to the core. Since I did not see the televised news, I can only speculate that she was probably a victim of domestic violence. I don't know the whereabouts of her child. Yet another victim of society (familiar in our country as well). I have to refocus and try to redirect them to happier times.

On to the next shelter (Reaching Out). The social worker has the flu and really should not be here to work a 24-hour shift. I offered to take her place in helping with dinner in the hope of protecting everyone from getting sick. So, what to do with a dozen eggs and a lot of frozen (freezer burnt) veggies? I decided to go with a deconstructed frittata since the oven does not work. We sautéed frozen veggies (spinach, carrots, green beans), onions and garlic in a stock pot, added cooked potatoes and whipped eggs with milk and seasonings. Then let it steam in the stock pot. Couldn't believe it was edible (and the girls hate spinach!) Again, had to refocus the girls making dinner and giving the social worker a break.

I was asked to give a ride home to a family visiting one of the girls at the shelter. Luckily, I had to clear it first with my boss and she said no, much to my relief. Of course, I didn't mind giving a ride, but I certainly didn't want to accept liability should anything happen. I also didn't want to set any kind of precedent. Still, I feel a twinge of guilt because of the situation.

Finally, praying for clear counsel on whether the mission trip back to the Ukraine will take place this summer. It is a time of corruption and political unrest, an all too familiar tune. I would drive there (8 hours plus 2 border crossings), which may come with its own slew of challenges.

So, just as we all experience ups and downs in our daily happenings, the same happens here, just different circumstances and languages. They grieve as we do, and rejoice in good times. May we be diligent in holding each other in prayer. Amen.

Ruth

Infinite Love

March 8th is celebrated as International Women's Day. In Romania, all women and girls are treated with trinkets and flowers from family, friends and strangers alike. It is like our Mother's Day on steroids! A traditional Romanian dish served on this day is "măcinici" with pasta shaped like "8" to symbolize the infinity of a mother's love. As Christians, we also celebrate God's infinite love for us, unconditionally, through good times and bad.

I have a few blessings to share with you. First, after more than 4 months of red tape, I finally received my temporary residency card. So, I am cleared to stay in Romania until January 2021. Second, I was elated to hear that an 18-year-old sex-trafficking victim who was discharged from one of the shelters continues to attend school and seems to be adjusting well in society. Third, I have been accepted on the East European Missions Network (EEMN) bible camp team, and I look forward to teaching the kids in the Ukraine again in June, before coming home for 6 weeks this summer.

There are also a few prayer requests that I have. One is for the acceptance of visa paperwork so that my Romanian friend, Raluca and her baby Cristina will be able to accompany me to the USA in June for a visit. I learned from my experience that something routine quickly evolves into complications. The next request is for guidance for creative expressions of love through children's lessons, activities and crafts. I sent a "wish list" of supplies to Molly Stanton for your prayerful consideration. I also welcome any suggestions you have from previous activities in Sunday School, Vacation Bible School, youth group activities, etc. The only criteria are that the activities are simplistic and inexpensive for the materials. I usually translate the activity to fit younger children at church (7-14 years old), teenage girls from the shelter (although their attention span is more like middle school age), and young mothers from the other shelter. I will also adapt whatever materials are donated to accompany classroom supplies in the Ukraine. I take to heart 5 loaves and 2 fish, so nothing is wasted and your donations will touch dozens of children, and in turn, their loved ones. Lastly, please keep my family and me in your prayers. Though we are accustomed to being miles apart, technology cannot replace kisses and hugs!!!

Peace, Ruth
